- And much more just a quick drive away!!

Florida offers a unique lifestyle no matter where you live.

- Florida has no state income tax and
- no inheritance tax, and
- many of our rural communities boast some of the nation's lowest costs of living.

Join the over 5,000 funeral directors who have chosen to call Florida home.

The Florida Funeral Directors Association (FFDA) wants to help you find a job in Florida. We are currently working with mortuary schools throughout the nation to recruit talented and motivated students to work in Florida. We have an employment section on our web site, www.ffda.org, where you can upload your resume and fill out a profile about yourself, your experiences and where in Florida you would like to work. FFDA will then broadcast your information out to funeral homes in the areas you have selected. One of them will be just the right fit for you.

Let us help you with this FREE job search program.

By the way, while you are on the website, go to the membership section and fill out the membership form to receive a complimentary student membership. You'll receive our magazine The Director and invitations to networking opportunities where a job is only a conversation away.

About the Florida Funeral Directors Association

For over 113 years, the Florida Funeral Directors Association has maintained a vigil in Florida's state capital, effectively pursuing the best interests of Florida funeral directors and the families we serve. As the major source of communication, resources and benefits for Florida funeral directors, FFDA carries the torch of the traditional funeral institution while tapping into the strengths of its members to meet the challenges of the changing needs of society.
